FOLLOWS

HOUSES IN COLUMBIA
808 Main Street
Columbia, Monroe County, Illinois

Owner. Anna Reis.

Date of Erection. About 1845.

Architect. No record.

Builder. Anton Schuler.

Present Condition. Well preserved and unchanged, except for addition at rear.

Number of Stories. One and one-half.

Materials of Construction. Solid brick exterior and interior walls, with stone foundation. Addition is frame. Interior walls plastered. 2 x 4 pine roof rafters and studs on second floor. Wood shingle roof; pine floor and trim.

Other Existing Records. None.

Additional Data. This is an example of the single family types of somewhat larger proportions than earlier houses. The chimney locations, brick cornice, and roof pitch adhere closely to the traditional trend. As in most houses of the village, the chimneys wind around in peculiar formations, in order to miss a set window location and still project on the exterior, in pairs, near the ridge.
